

1. You are notified that the following judgment was entered on (date):
- a. ☐ Default taken and proposed judgment entered under Family Code section 17430.
- b. ☐ Judgment Regarding Parental Obligations.
- c. ☐ Other (specify):

2. A copy of each document referred to in item 1 is attached.

If the local child support agency does not know how much money the parent who is required to pay support earns, that parent (known as the Obligor) is presumed to earn enough money to pay the same amount as the minimum basic standard of adequate care for the children as provided by state law.

If the support order contained in this judgment is based on presumed income, the Obligor may file a motion (form 1299.19), a copy of which may be obtained from the local child support agency or the court clerk, and ask the court to set aside the child support provisions of the judgment. If the court decides to set aside the support order, the court will issue another support order based on either the Obligor's actual income or earning capacity. The Obligor must file the motion with the court clerk no later than 90 days from the date the first collection of support is made.
