Status of this Document

There are three categories of ebXML deliverables:
- o Technical Specifications conform to the ebXML Requirements document.
- o Technical Reports are either guidelines or catalogues.
- o White Papers constitute a snapshot of on-going work within a Project Team.

This Technical Report has been approved by the ebXML Core Components Team and has been accepted by the ebXML Plenary.

This document contains information to guide in the interpretation or implementation of ebXML.

Distribution of this document is unlimited.

Note: Implementers should consult the ebXML web site for current status and revisions to all specifications (http://www.ebxml.org) .
