1. PURPOSE

This Directive:

- 1.1. In accordance with the guidance in Reference (a) and the authority in Reference (b), augments Reference (c) and implements Reference (d) to prescribe policy and assign responsibilities for the lifecycle management of the DoD Senior Executive Service (SES).
- 1.2. Establishes an overarching policy governing the lifecycle management of SES positions within the Department of Defense as authorized by Reference (b).
- 1.3. Establishes the DoD Executive Advisory Board (DEAB) to advise the Department of Defense on the lifecycle management of the SES.
- 1.4. Establishes a corps of key SES positions that require an enterprise perspective, hereafter referred to as "enterprise positions."

2. APPLICABILITY AND SCOPE

- 2.1. This Directive applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as the “DoD Components”). The provisions of this Directive may be administratively extended to defense intelligence senior executives.

2.2. Its provisions cover:

2.2.1. The Career Reserved and General DoD SES positions of Reference (d).

2.2.2. Career SES members as defined in Reference (d).

3. DEFINITIONS

Terms used in this Directive are defined in Enclosure 2.

4. POLICY

It is DoD policy to institute a deliberate, systematic, and predictable approach to management of the career lifecycle of DoD SES leaders to produce the best civilian career leadership cadre possible – one that is fully integrated with other components of DoD executive leadership, general and flag officers (G/FOs), and political leaders. The Department’s vision for the management and development of senior executives is that of a senior civilian workforce that possesses a broad background of skills and experiences that will have prepared them to support the warfighter and meet the continually changing management requirements of the Department.

5. GUIDING PRINCIPLES

5.1. Executive Management. Executive management of career SES executives shall be in accordance with the following principles:

5.1.1. The career SES corps shall be a vital part of the DoD executive leadership team, which includes G/FOs and politically appointed executives.

5.1.2. SES career executives are strong corporate citizens and leaders who exhibit the highest standards of ethical behavior, view their responsibilities in the context of the larger DoD enterprise and public policy interests, and work effectively across organizational boundaries and functional areas. They shall exhibit:

5.1.2.1. Enterprise-spanning perspective.

5.1.2.2. Strategic vision and strategic thinking ability.

5.1.2.3. Competency in joint matters.

5.1.2.4. Global and cultural astuteness.

5.1.2.5. Business acumen.

5.1.2.6. Leadership proficiency.

5.1.2.7. Results-driven focus.

5.1.2.8. Capability to build partnerships and communicate effectively.

5.1.3. Executive management is a critical function of the Department of Defense and must be carefully and deliberately managed. Throughout the career lifecycle framework (recruitment, selection, development, performance management, succession and sustainment of talent, and separation), executives will be guided through:

5.1.3.1. Core Precepts. A set of core precepts will guide career lifecycle decisions and ensure the Department's needs are weighed as heavily as DoD Component needs in these decisions.

5.1.3.2. Recruitment and Diversity. Recruitment and selection of diverse talent will be made considering a mix of talent from internal and external sources consistent with Reference (d); sections 330.102(d) and 317.501 of title 5, Code of Federal Regulations (Reference (e)); and DoD Directive 1440.1 (Reference (f)).

5.1.3.2.1. All Executives must sign an agreement for reassignments within and outside the geographic area prior to occupying positions covered by this Directive.

5.1.3.2.2. All Executives will be given advance notice of reassignments consistent with section 317.901 of Reference (e).

5.1.3.3. Development. Deliberate development, in consultation with supervisors and mentors, will occur through a structured series of well-planned developmental and educational experiences, often including reassignments to more challenging positions.

5.1.3.3.1. The developmental model will encourage the accumulation of a diverse portfolio of experiences as a matter of course. The objective is to build executives with strong skills to lead and operate effectively across organizational and functional boundaries.

5.1.3.3.2. SES career executives may be reassigned by the DoD Component Heads to provide for the development of executive capabilities and to meet shifting organizational priorities.

5.1.3.3.3. Career executives occupying enterprise positions may be reassigned to any DoD position for which they are qualified in accordance with section 3395 of Reference (d) and section 317.901 of Reference (e), and will include consultation with the respective DoD Component Head prior to effecting reassignments.

5.1.3.4. Performance Management. A performance management culture that encourages and rewards creativity, innovation, intelligent risk-taking, and critical thinking will be sustained.

5.1.3.5. Talent Management and Succession Planning. Career SES leadership capability will be sustained to meet mission requirements. Positions will be managed using a comprehensive strategic planning process. Organizational and individual SES capability will be assessed, at least annually to:

5.1.3.5.1. Understand the competencies available in the career SES corps to meet mission requirements.

5.1.3.5.2. Diagnose individual executive talent for development and assignment.

5.1.3.5.3. Identify where additional resources should be directed to fill gaps.

5.1.3.5.4. Identify enterprise positions that require critical review and attention.

5.2. Position Management. Career SES positions shall be managed based on the following principles:

5.2.1. Career SES positions differ in scope, influence, accountability, and impact.

5.2.2. A subset of SES positions will be identified as enterprise positions.

5.2.2.1. Enterprise positions have unique demands of scope and breadth, influence, and impact and will affect organizational outcomes more significantly.

5.2.2.2. Enterprise positions require competency in joint matters and broad, enterprise-spanning perspective.

5.2.2.3. Enterprise position selections will require the Head of Components to confer with the Deputy Secretary of Defense prior to confirming a selection.

5.2.3. Career SES positions will be supported by a common tier structure as established by the Deputy Secretary of Defense to provide transparency and comparability in executive position and compensation management.

6. RESPONSIBILITIES

6.1. The Deputy Secretary of Defense (DepSecDef) shall:

6.1.1. Establish the DEAB and appoint DEAB members representing SES leaders and G/FOs from across the DoD Components to advise and provide recommendations on career SES matters (see paragraph 6.5.). The members will represent a balance of career and non-career SES leaders and G/FOs from across the DoD Components.

6.1.2. Approve a list of positions designated as enterprise positions that have been nominated by the DoD Component Heads and recommended by the DEAB.

6.1.3. Confer on appointments of SES executives for enterprise positions based on DoD Component Head selection.

6.2. The Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (USD(P&R)) shall:

6.2.1. Establish policy for the lifecycle management of the SES and enterprise positions consistent with merit system principles and the DoD Civilian Equal Employment Opportunity Program (Reference (d)).

6.2.2. Establish DoD core precepts, as recommended by the DEAB and supplemented as necessary by the DoD Components, to be used by all DoD Components to ensure consistent, transparent, and deliberate career lifecycle management of all SES executives.

6.2.3. Issue policy and guidance that shapes the executive management framework, precepts, and policies for the management of the SES and enterprise positions.

6.2.4. Provide advice, policy, and guidance to be used by the DEAB.

6.2.5. Manage and oversee implementation of this Directive.

6.3. The Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Civilian Personnel Policy, under the USD(P&R), shall:

6.3.1. Advise on policy and guidance for the executive management framework and its strategic policies.

6.3.2. Serve as the Executive Director and provide operational, administrative, and policy support to the DEAB.

6.3.3. Monitor the program requirements and implementation and provide oversight to ensure compliance with the requirements of the policies of this Directive.

6.4. The Heads of the DoD Components with independent appointing authority shall:

6.4.1. Hold full responsibility for managing the career lifecycle of their SES members, within the context of the DoD executive management lifecycle framework and through, at a minimum, the application of DoD core precepts at each stage of the lifecycle.

6.4.2. Establish a centralized management structure to effectively govern and manage the SES career executives. A centralized organization will be established to support the Deputy Secretary of Defense.

6.4.3. Select the candidates to fill SES and enterprise positions. Confer with the Deputy Secretary of Defense on selections made for enterprise positions as provided in subparagraph 6.1.3.

6.4.4. Nominate SES positions to be designated as enterprise positions.

6.4.5. Select SES leaders and G/FOs to represent their DoD Component on the DEAB.

6.4.6. Submit SES leader and G/FO nominations to the DEAB to serve as representatives of SES leaders and G/FOs from across the DoD Components.

6.4.7. Provide DoD Component insight on best practice approaches to the career lifecycle management of the SES for the Department of Defense.

6.4.8. Establish controls to ensure equitable treatment of all executives when organizational decisions require a reassignment outside the commuting area.

6.4.9. Monitor the implementation of, and ensure compliance with, the requirements of the policies of this Directive.

6.4.10. Establish the DoD Component management structures to include Executive Resource Boards (ERBs) to govern and manage the SES career executives effectively (see paragraph 6.6.).

6.5. The DEAB shall:

6.5.1. Ensure continuity of the highest caliber of SES leadership.

6.5.2. Define core precepts for the lifecycle management decisions.

6.5.3. Recommend at least annually a list of enterprise positions for DepSecDef approval.

6.5.3.1. For career positions in the legal field, obtain the concurrence of the General Counsel of the Department of Defense, prior to recommending the positions to the Deputy Secretary of Defense in accordance with DoD Directives 5145.1 and 5145.4 (References (g) and (h)).

6.5.3.2. For career SES positions in the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, obtain the concurrence of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense prior to recommending the positions to the Deputy Secretary of Defense.

6.5.4. Validate the process used for selecting individuals for enterprise positions.

6.5.5. Analyze the trends in career SES selections and assignments to inform policy decisions and ensure compliance with the requirements of this Directive.

6.6. The DoD ERBs shall:

6.6.1. Conduct the merit staffing process for career SES positions.

6.6.2. Identify and recommend DoD Component enterprise positions for DEAB review and DepSecDef approval.

6.6.3. Perform the strategic planning processes in accordance with subparagraph 5.1.3.5.

7. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Directive is effective immediately.
