FCC ANNOUNCES AGENDA FOR LOW POWER FM FORUM TO BE HELD FEBRUARY 8, 2005

This Public Notice advises interested parties of the agenda for the Federal Communications Commission (FCC)'s Low Power FM Forum, which will be held in the Commission Meeting Room at FCC Headquarters, 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, DC, on February 8, 2005. The morning event will be open to the public, and no advance reservation or registration is required.

The Low Power FM (LPFM) radio service was created by the Commission in 2000. Stations operate with an effective radiated power (ERP) of 100 watts (0.1 kilowatts) or less and cover a range of about 5.6 kilometers or 3.5 miles. LPFM stations are available to noncommercial educational entities and public safety and transportation organizations, but are not available to individuals or for commercial operations. LPFM operators may bring information about their stations for display in the Commission Meeting Room during the forum.
