The Arizona Diamondbacks and the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, since being established in 1997, have raised and donated more than $85 million in charitable contributions to the Arizona community.

The mission of the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation is to support three main areas of need: homelessness, indigent healthcare and children's programs of all types, including education and youth baseball and softball field building and renovation, outreach programs and equipment. In addition, the Foundation has created strategic programs that address the needs of our community including veterans, police, teachers, firefighters and first responders - just to name a few.

The Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation distributes funds through Program Grants, Ken Kendrick Grand Slam Awards, 'Diamonds Back' Field Building, Education Initiatives, Youth Baseball and Outreach programs, and strategic partnerships with key community partners and non-profit organizations.

The organization coined the phrase "D-backs Give Back" in 2012, a simple and concise phrase to explain the dedication and combined giving of the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation.

AVNET JERSEY PATCH

In February 2023, the Arizona Diamondbacks entered a multi-year partnership with Avnet to include the company's "A" and name on the sleeve of the D-backs' jerseys as well as a strong community partnership element, becoming the third MLB team to secure a jersey patch partner since the program started on April 1, 2022.

This collaboration brings together two Arizona-based organizations that share a commitment to creating a best-in-class experience for customers, partners, fans, and their employees as well as an equal dedication to the communities they serve. A significant part of the relationship brings together two organizations committed to making investments in Arizona's youth through STEM education programs throughout the state.

"It was natural for us to partner with the Arizona Diamondbacks, a home-grown team that is as dedicated to Arizona and its communities as we are," said Avnet CEO Phil Gallagher. "As a global company, we're dedicated to serving the communities in which our employees live, work and play, and we are excited to support the team's work on and off the field while collaborating to make a difference in our community."

"We are excited to partner with locally-based Avnet primarily because of our aligned values that include a real commitment to our employees and our fans as well as a dedication to making a difference in the great state of Arizona through our community support and investments," said D-backs President & CEO Derrick Hall. "For more than a century, Avnet has been a home to good people who show up to make a difference in people's lives through their products and services and community commitment. I look forward to making a larger impact in this state now that we are partnering with one of Arizona's hidden treasures, Avnet."

I'm so grateful that the D-backs allowed me to fulfill that dream. My family was very happy when they saw me in my cap and gown."

A SCOUT'S PERSPECTIVE

While recovering from shoulder surgery in 2021, spent majority of the season watching D-backs games in the scout's section behind home plate at Chase Field with the club's advance scout, Jeff Gardner.

"[Jeff Gardner] would be with our Major League players every day and then be sitting behind home with me every night. He was gracious enough to let me come into his workspace. It was really, really great for him to let me do that. But it was a really neat look at the preparation piece of it and into some of the different approaches that our hitters were having toward their pitcher and seeing how they executed that. Just some of the finer details that I think I definitely wouldn't have had if I didn't have access to that. So, I'm super grateful to him for letting me barrage in there."

Corbin Carroll to the Arizona Republic in 2021.

NOTABLE MLB FIRSTS

- His 5 RBI in his first 2 MLB games are the most by a D-back in franchise history [source: Sportradar].
- Became the first D-back since Gerardo Parra in 2009 and fourth in franchise history to record 6+ RBI in their first 5 Major League games.

Spent the entire season at the D-backs' Alternate Training Site at Salt River Fields.

"There was that personal piece to it, that personal development, of facing better pitchers than I would have, working with higher level coaches and understanding a little better what would be expected at the big league level. Also, learning to play with guys like Alek Thomas, guys that hopefully I'm playing with for a long time. I think that was so valuable because in a normal year we probably would have been playing on different fields."

THANKS MOM!

- Drove with his mom, Pey-Lin, from Seattle to Scottsdale, arriving the day before the D-backs' 2020 Alternate Training Site opened.

- After they were done and back at their car in the parking lot, they realized the gate was locked and were stuck...the D-backs ended up sending Luis Gonzalez, whose son Jacob graduated from Chaparral, over to get them out.

"She's pretty good. She's a lefty too, so that's a good angle for me to see."

Corbin Carroll to MLB.com's Steve Gilbert.

ICHIRO INSPIRATION

- His first baseball memory is of being a young boy sitting in the upper deck on the first-base side at Safeco Field watching Ichiro Suzuki play right field.
- Before the 2019 draft, the Mariners, who knew Carroll had grown up idolizing Ichiro and his iconic swing, invited him to visit Safeco Field and made sure the 2 met.
- Carroll talked with Ichiro about hitting and took away an important lesson from his lifelong idol: "Be consistent in your routine."

"So by keeping the same routine every day, you can at least have the confidence to say that you went out there with 100% confidence in your preparation. I think I take a lot of confidence in my ability to prepare."

Corbin Carroll to MLB.com's Steve Gilbert.

- To this day, Carroll's phone screensaver is a photo with Ichiro from that 2019 meeting holding a tiny No. 51 jersey, Carroll's first jersey as a kid when he was about 6 yrs old.

Combined to hit .299 with 9 doubles, 7 triples, 2 home runs and 20 RBI in 42 games with Rookie AZL D-backs and Short-Season A Hillsboro.

"I like to make a donation to the community every year and I had been thinking of what I could do for a while, something that could help the community for a long time. DON'T MESS WITH PAPÁ

Dad, Miguel Sr., trained as an amateur boxer in his youth, but was unable to pursue a pro career due to a lack of resources and a mentor who could guide him...eventually moved on to work in the meat industry...although Miguel Sr. never tried to turn his son into a fighter, he instilled a strong work ethic and discipline in him.

"He always taught me that you have to work and nothing is easily earned. He worked as a butcher and would tell me 'you're waking up early and coming to work with me so you can see what work is'. I would help him in the morning and then go to the field. Thankfully, I grew up with that work ethic and we are here now."

PIÑA POWER!

- When older brother, Yuli, was called up to the Astros in 2016, he gained attention because of his unique hairstyle, which sprouted up and flowed in different directions and drew comparison to a pineapple... with his success at the plate, he was given the nickname "La Piña" (The Pineapple) and the phrase "Piña Power" (Pineapple Power) was created.
- When Lourdes Jr. made his debut with Toronto, he followed the look Yuli had created and continues to sport it with a different hair color each season...in his first season with Arizona he chose purple.

"Very naturally, people started comparing [his hairstyle] with a pineapple. The results began to come and then the name 'Piña Power' came about. Then I came to Toronto with the same flow and they gave me the same nickname. It's something that just came naturally over the days."

Over 100 friends and family made the trip to Cleveland, just 4 hours away from his hometown, to watch Henry's Major League debut on Aug. 3, 2022.

"It's a testament to their ability to be flexible, but also the willingness to travel and put in all the time," Henry said. "So, it's cool that they're still able to do that even at this level and at this time. I'm grateful for it. It's fun to see them after each game."

"It's been special," Henry told Arizona Sports' Wolf & Luke. "It was kind of a cool, unique experience to be able to debut in Cleveland, which isn't too far from Detroit, where my parents grew up. "One big thing is just the maturation of my body getting stronger as I got older," Kelly said about his increased velocity. "The next part would be the progression of my mechanics. When I first came to Korea, I was not very good at using my whole body, including my legs, when delivering the ball. Over the past couple of years, I have tried to focus on using more of my body to throw."

- Threw out 14-of-32 (44 pct.) attempted basestealers with the Fisher Cats.
- Entered the year rated by Baseball America as the Blue Jays' No. 8 prospect.

"He's a legend to all of us in Venezuela," said Moreno. "A Hall-of-Famer, God-willing. I'm extremely proud to have been able to meet him while making my debut versus Detroit. Extremely proud to be able to exchange a few words with him. It was really exciting."

WHAT ALMOST WASN'T

- Almost gave up his baseball dreams at age 9 in the late 2000s when Venezuela was suffering from food shortages, poverty issues, a country-wide energy crisis and economic decline, which took its toll on Moreno's family.
- With 4 children to care for, his father, José, struggled to provide for the family, which forced the youngest Moreno to quit baseball for lack of funds.

"My dad wasn't making much money. He couldn't find much money, and when he did, it was for food, not for baseball."

Gabriel Moreno to MLB.com.

"He picked me up, dropped me off, made everything easier for me. He helped me return to baseball. Thanks to him, I was able to go to the academy that signed me. I'm so grateful for him. He's been like a father to me and his whole family has helped me so much."

Gabriel Moreno to MLB.com about Jose Mejia.

- Moreno's baseball dream was kept alive thanks to Jose Mejia, president of the local "12 de Octubre" baseball school...Mejia believed in his ability so much that he did everything he could to ensure he got back on the field at age 11, including letting him stay at his home for days and becoming his main method of transportation getting to away games.

FROM SHORTSTOP TO BACKSTOP

Grew up playing shortstop throughout his amateur career and was a fan of the Mets' Francisco Lindor...converted to catcher by Blue Jays' scout, Francisco Plasencia, in 2016 at the age of 16 during the signing process.

THE BEAUTIFUL GAME

- Began playing soccer more regularly at age 9 when he was temporarily taken away from baseball due to economic hardships.
- He would dribble the ball in his neighborhood and play in pick-up games...his favorite player is Brazilian forward, Neymar, because of what he calls, "an unbelievable talent on the field and the ability to create incredible plays."

Batted .280 (86-for-307)/.822 OPS with 17 doubles, 5 triples, 12 homers and 52 RBI in 82 games with Single-A Lansing.

WANNA HAVE A CATCH?

- While awaiting the start of the 2020 Major League season, Nelson stayed in shape by playing catch in various Santa Barbara parks with former University of California, Santa Barbara teammate and fellow Cleveland pitcher Shane Bieber.

"It brought some comfort to both of us to be able to play catch together. We know each other's stuff so well," Bieber said.

- Caught grief from a lady for playing catch at the park during the lockdown.

"They think we're playing catch just to have a catch. I'm like, 'I have to keep up with this. This is my job. I have to stay ready,'" Bieber added.

IN MEMORY OF HIS IDOL

Began his youth career as a pitcher before switching to shortstop at the suggestion of his late cousin, Yewri Guillen, who Perdomo looked up to and learned the game from growing up...Guillen played shortstop but tragically lost his life at age 18 in 2011 in a motor accident in the Dominican Republic. Perdomo credits Guillen with instilling the love for the game in him as well as developing his maturation and work ethic.

"I loved being a pitcher," Perdomo said. "I'm now a shortstop because of him. I fell in love with the position and I am the person I am today because of him."

FIRST IN GRAND FASHION

- Became the second D-back in franchise history to hit a grand slam as their first career home run on June 7, 2022 @ Reds and first since Alfredo Marte on July 25, 2014 vs. Phillies (Buddy Kennedy became the third on June 19 vs. Twins) [source: Elias Sports Bureau].
- Was the second player in 2022 and fifth since 2020 whose first career home run was a grand slam [source: Elias Sports Bureau].

- Played in 11 games over 2 stints with the D-backs in his first Major League season, going 8-for-31 (.258).
- Made his Major League debut on April 3 @ Padres as a defensive replacement at shortstop.
- Hit .333 (7-for-21) with 3 doubles, 1 triple and 1 RBI in 7 games after being recalled from Triple-A Reno on Sept. 26.

- Entered the season ranked as the D-backs' No. 3 prospect (No. 75 overall) by Baseball America and by MLB Pipeline.

LIDOM BALL

Played for the first time in the Dominican Winter League with Aguilas during the 2022-23 season.

100+ CLUB

Was 1 of 2 rookie shortstops to play 100+ games in 2022 along with Jeremy Peña/HOU.

I AM IRON MAN

Looked up to Cal Ripken Jr. because he was the "Iron Man" who never missed a game...his favorite shortstops were Brandon Crawford and Francisco Lindor for their defensive prowess.

BACK TO THE DRAWING BOARD

- Was placed on the D-backs' Development List on July 8, 2021, and spent a month at Salt River Fields to retool his swing.
- Returned to Double-A Amarillo on Aug. 5 and hit .341/.992 OPS in his final 33 Minor League games.

"That approach that I have now from the development list, that's the best thing that happened to me," Perdomo said. "I'm more mature. And I'm more ready, honestly."

RIP MAMBA

Grew up idolizing the Lakers' Kobe Bryant as an avid basketball player/fan.

"I used to love watching basketball and baseball when I was little. Kobe was my favorite NBA player. Whenever we played basketball on the streets of the D.R., I would pretend to be him. He gave me the swagger to believe I could go up against anybody even if they were better, older or bigger than me. I always thought I was the best out there."

As an 18-year-old, hit .322/.438 OBP/.460 SLG with 7 doubles, 5 triples, 4 homers, 24 RBI and 43 runs scored in 57 games between Rookie-Level AZL D-backs, Rookie-Adv. Missoula and Short-Season A Hillsboro.

BIG LEAGUE FAMILY TIES

Is cousins with former Brewers and Padres pitcher Luis Perdomo...Gerald faced him for the first time on Sept. 1, 2022 vs. Brewers and singled.

"He is really like my brother more than my cousin," Perdomo said. "We are really close. I have faced him plenty of times in live batting practice and, I gotta tell you, it wasn't easy."

FALL LEAGUER

- Was the fourth-youngest Arizona Fall League participant (19) in 2019 and hit .317 with Salt River.

BURST ON THE SCENE IN '15

- In his rookie season, became the first pitcher in MLB history to toss 6.0+ innings and allow no more than 1 run and 3 hits or fewer in each of his first 3 games in the Majors...no other pitcher matched the feat until Bryce Miller/SEA in 2023.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he was also the first pitcher to begin a career with 3 straight starts of 6.0+ innings, 7+ strikeouts and 1 earned run or fewer since the earned run became an official stat in 1912.
- Became the first pitcher in Red Sox history to pitch at least 7.2 innings and allow no runs, yield 3 hits or fewer and strikeout 7+ in a debut.

- Wears No. 57 in honor of fellow Venezuelan and left-handed pitcher, Johan Santana. Began wearing the number as a youth and at the Major League level in 2018...refers to Santana as his idol and Venezuela's premier pitcher during his era.
- He points to Santana's style of pitching as a left-hander that first drew him to watch and learn from the 2-time Cy Young winner.
- Was a dream come true when the 2 met in the Orioles' organization and developed a close friendship.

THE LEFTY LENDS A HELPING HAND

As originally reported by Peter Abraham of The Boston Globe in 2019:

When a team of Little League kids (8-10-year-old division) from Maracaibo, Venezuela, qualified for the Latin America championship tournament in Mexico, Rodriguez paid the airfare so the team could attend. The team had appealed for help from the government and other sources in Venezuela but struck out each time. They even slept on the streets of Caracas while on a fundraising trip but found no assistance in a country devastated by poverty. It appeared likely at one point that the team wouldn't get to Mexico. Rodriguez got word of their plight and arranged for the tickets. The team arrived in Mexico after the opening ceremony, but won the tournament by beating Guatemala, Panama, Puerto Rico, and Mexico twice before swamping Curacao, 13-5, in the championship game. They arrived back in Maracaibo to a celebration attended by 2,000 people at Edgar Ferrer Stadium and were given the name "The Heroes of San Miguel" for the part of the city they're from.

"That's me, I try to be that happy guy. I don't focus on bad things. I try to focus on being happy. This game is so hard and you don't have time to take that. I just take the good moments and try to be happy and bring the good vibes only. I keep it there. I try to enjoy the moment and enjoy my game and what I do. That's what [teammates] can always expect from me. I always smile no matter what."

A COLORFUL STYLE

MOTHER'S DAY DEBUT

Made his Major League debut on Mother's Day, May 8, 2022 @ Chase Field...collected his first Major League hit (double) with his mom, Marcela, in attendance along with dad, Allen, and other family and friends.

"I've been in this [baseball] world for a really long time and I thought I had experienced everything, but this one was definitely a game changer. It was everything."

Marcela Thomas to Bally Sports Arizona postgame

Dad, Allen, was the White Sox' Director of Strength and Conditioning from 2004-2021, which led to Alek being a mainstay in the Chicago clubhouse.

"I've been around a lot of the guys...Jim Thome was a big guide for me, having the same mental approach and being a good guy on and off the field. Adam Engel, I spent a lot of time with. Adam Eaton, Juan Pierre, Andruw Jones, Todd Frazier, Tim Anderson, Jose Abreu. The whole team, pretty much, from 2003 to now."

"I think I've lived sort of a professional life from being with my dad for the past however long he's been in the game. It's not too different. Being a player is obviously different, but having my own locker is pretty much the only thing that's different, so there's not really too much that stands out."

AUTOGRAPH HOUND

- Ryan's dad took him on a weekend trip to Seattle each year to attend a Mariners series and Ryan would wait at the visiting hotel for players to sign.
- During one of the series, he ran at full speed up a down direction escalator to reach Derek Jeter.

"One year when we went, the Yankees were in town. It was around two in the morning. I was going down the escalator, turned around and looked up and Jeter and Tanyon Sturtze were right there. I was not going to miss the opportunity, so I turned around and starting sprinting as fast as I could up the escalator. I made it to the top step, tripped and hit my face on the metal grate. Jeter and Sturtze turned and went 'oooohhhh'. I got up and was bleeding. I asked if I could have their autograph. They were like, 'kid, it aint worth it.' Jeter didn't sign for me, but the next day I was waiting for him outside and he signed for me."

THANKS DAD!

In 2020, with no fans allowed inside Tropicana Field, Ryan's father, Ed, flew to St. Petersburg to watch his Major League debut from Ferg's Sports Bar & Grill near the ballpark.

"This whole journey has been mine and my dad's together. This is what he wanted to do. When I was growing up, he set me up to live his dream for him. When I got 10 or 12 or so it became my dream as well and we've lived it out together. We've been together every step of the way."

"For him to not be there for my debut was killing him so he was like I am going to fly in anyways and I'm going to be as close to the stadium as I can to feel like I'm there. It was pretty cool and we got to meetup afterwards in the parking lot. I didn't want to be that guy that got covid and got everyone sick so we were at a distance waving."

CHANGEUPS AND FOOTBALL

2022 Amarillo pitching coach Shane Loux said Walston's changeup emerged as "by far his best secondary pitch," in part thanks to some work the former high school quarterback put in throwing the football around before games.

"Walston said the release on the football was similar to what he wanted to feel with his changeup," Loux said. "As he threw the football and turned his hand over to get the spiral, he found a changeup that had some really good sink to it. He was able to get under some bats with it."

- Went 4-5 with a 3.76 ERA (40 ER in 95.2 IP) over 19 starts between Single-A Visalia and High-A Hillsboro.
- Collected 11 strikeouts on July 20 @ Eugene (1 ER in 8.0 IP).
- Entered the season as the D-backs' No. 5 prospect by MLB Pipeline (No. 8 by Baseball America).

GATORADE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Named the 2018-19 Gatorade North Carolina High School Baseball Player of the Year.

"Walston is somebody who was dominant on the mound from start to finish," said Nick Raynor, head coach of Topsail High School. "Even without his best stuff, he would find a way to pitch and get batters out. But his stuff was some of the best you will ever see at the high school level, especially from a southpaw."

NEW HANOVER HISTORY

Became the first player from New Hanover to be selected in the first round of the MLB Draft out of high school since the Red Sox selected Trot Nixon seventh overall in 1993.

LUIS GONZALEZ AWARD
In 2015, the Luis Gonzalez Award was created, which will be given annually to the D-backs player who best exemplifies the talents, spirit and heart of the D-backs legend both on and off the field, as voted by his teammates, coaches and clubhouse staff. One of the most popular figures in Arizona Diamondbacks history because of the way he interacted with fans and his game-winning single in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series to give the organization its first World Championship, Gonzalez became the first former player to have his number retired by the D-backs during a pre-game ceremony in 2010.

RANDY JOHNSON ON MAY 18, 2004 @ BRAVES

Adept at setting records throughout his career, Randy Johnson added something new to his impressive resume when he retired all 27 Atlanta Braves he faced on May 18, 2004, at Turner Field. At 40 years, 251 days, he became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game, bettering Cy Young, who was 37 years, 37 days on May 5, 1904. Johnson's gem was the 15th in modern day regular season history, the 16th including Don Larsen's perfect effort for the Yankees in the 1956 World Series.

Johnson fanned 13 in the 117-pitch performance which concluded with a 98-mph pitch to Eddie Perez to end the game. It was the first no-no in franchise history and first perfect game in the Majors since the Yankees' David Cone on July 18, 1999 vs. Montreal. It was also the first perfect in the National League since the Expos' Dennis Martínez on July 28, 1991 @ Dodgers.

UNOFFICIAL MADISON BUMGARNER ON APRIL 25 @ BRAVES [GAME 2]

Madison Bumgarner tossed MLB's first unofficial no-hitter (7.0 IP) on April 25, 2021 @ Braves [Game 2] under the new doubleheader rules that began in 2020, facing the minimum 21 batters.

In an effort to speed the proceedings during the coronavirus pandemic, Major League Baseball declared that games played as part of a doubleheader would be scheduled to last 7.0 innings instead of 9.0.

Although the game was officially a "complete game", the league stated that it would abide by the definition of the Elias Sports Bureau: "No-hitters by teams and individuals shall not be credited in scheduled seven-inning games, unless the game goes to extra innings and the team (or individual in a complete game) pitches at least nine innings and does not allow a hit."

It marked Bumgarner's 300th career start, 16th complete game and seventh shutout.

JACKIE ROBINSON

MLB CAREER

YEARS: 1947-1956

AWARDS: 6x NL All-Star (1949-54), 1947 Rookie of the Year, 1949 NL Most Valuable Player.

NOTES: Bud Selig announced on April 15, 1997, that Jackie Robinson's No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball, barring players on any Major League club to wear the number...as an exception to the retired number policy, MLB has recently begun honoring Robinson's legacy by allowing players to wear No. 42 on April 15 each season to celebrate Jackie Robinson Day...for the 60th anniversary of Robinson's Major League debut, MLB invited players to wear No. 42 on Jackie Robinson Day in 2007...the gesture was originally the idea of Ken Griffey, Jr., who sought Rachel Robinson's permission to wear the number...after receiving her permission, Selig not only allowed Griffey to wear the number, but also extended an invitation to all clubs to do the same.

GREG SCHULTE RADIO BOOTH DEDICATION | SEPTEMBER 29, 2023

Greg Schulte, who retired following the 2023 season, joined the Arizona Diamondbacks organization in the 1998 inaugural season and served as the D-backs' Radio Play-by-Play Announcer for 26 seasons. On September 29, 2023, Schulte was surprised by a seemingly impromptu gathering of media and front office staff upon his arrival. D-backs President, CEO & General Partner Derrick Hall greeted Schulte, his wife Nancy, son Scott and daughter Stephanie, and other family members who'd gathered to honor a D-backs legend. As Schulte walked down the familiar Chase Field hallway, he walked past photos lining the walls celebrating his career, and that the radio broadcast booth he'd spent so much time in over the last 26 seasons, now bears his name. The Arizona Diamondbacks dedicated and renamed the booth the "Greg Schulte Radio Booth."

"We could not think of a better way to celebrate a career like Greg's and the impact he has had on the Arizona Diamondbacks organization," said Hall. "Greg's voice is synonymous with D-backs baseball and generations of D-backs fans have experienced the game through listening to his calls on the radio. Now, his legacy will live on right here at Chase Field as the next generation of broadcasters make calls from the Greg Schulte Radio Booth."

Some of Schulte's career calls and highlights include:

- Nearly 4,000 regular-season and postseason games on radio and TV during his 26 seasons.
- Luis Gonzalez's walk-off, ninth-inning single to win Game 7 of 2001 World Series over the New York Yankees.
- Randy Johnson's historic achievements, including his perfect game on May 18, 2004 @ Braves, his 20-strikeout game, his 3,000th and 4,000th strikeout games and more.
- Four no-hitters, two for his team and two by opposing pitchers: D-backs' Edwin Jackson on June 25, 2010 @ Rays and Tyler Gilbert on August 14, 2021 vs. Padres;
- Cardinals' Jose Jimenez on June 25, 1999 @ D-backs; and Marlins' Anibal Sanchez on Sept. 6, 2006 vs. D-backs.
- His 3,000th D-backs game on April 19, 2017.
- In recognition of his 2,000th D-backs' broadcast, the organization honored Schulte by distributing a bobblehead in his likeness (first 15,000 fans) on July 10, 2010 vs. Marlins.
- His unique homerun call of "deep drive... warning track... wall... you can touch 'em all" is synonymous with D-backs radio broadcasts.
- From 1998-99, Schulte and Bob Brenly partnered for 3 innings nightly on television and his nickname "the Gub'nuh" was bestowed upon him by Brenly and Thom Brennaman.
- Part of the Phoenix broadcast scene since 1979.

MEDIA COVERAGE AND CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

Pursuant to Major League Baseball policy and Arizona Diamondbacks media coverage and credential guidelines:

Credentials for the Arizona Diamondbacks Spring Training and Regular Season (does not apply to the Postseason) are issued at the discretion of the Arizona Diamondbacks Communications Department. Approved media outlets will be issued either Season Credentials or Single Game/Daily credentials based on the below guidelines.

Credentialed media members must adhere to Major League Baseball (MLB) terms and conditions (MLB.com/tac) and any violations are grounds for the revoking of a credential.

All requests for credentials must be submitted on MLB's online credential site: <http://credentials.mlb.com>. Priority is given to working media using the following factors, among others, to issue credentials accordingly:

- Credentials/coverage will be considered for working members of the media representing major media outlets, including Daily Major Metropolitan Newspapers, Local Affiliates of National TV Networks, FM/AM Local Radio Stations and Websites of National Outlets, in the business of news gathering.
- The dissemination of editorial content must be the primary purpose of the news outlet and the news outlet must demonstrate a record of sustained, original coverage of local sports and/or news.
- Credible media outlets are growing businesses with a strong following/readership/viewership and focused on news gathering and dissemination with credential holders on assignment providing original, active, and consistent coverage specific to the event.
- Past coverage and attendance at Spring Training and Regular Season games, media sessions, workouts, events, etc. for the past five (5) seasons will be taken into consideration for the granting of credentials.
- Media outlets should have gone "live" to the public prior to January 1, 2021, and the staff (writers, reporters, content creators) should have a strong professional history in the business of news gathering and dissemination.
- Media outlets should employ at least three (3) full-time salaried individuals who provide editorial oversight before an article can be posted. Full-time employees intending to provide event coverage may be considered for a credential.
- Independent bloggers or fan sites where anyone can submit articles for publication do not qualify for full season credentials.
- Media outlets should have at least one (1) designated beat writer or reporter with content attributed to the beat writer(s) or reporter(s).
- A requesting media agency should represent a collective, organizational editorial voice, not simply the offerings of a single individual.
- Media outlets should have a strong following/readership/viewership and exhibit consistent and substantial growth in legitimate, unique visitors per month over a rolling 12-month period.
- Credentials will not be issued to representatives whose outlet exists solely as a platform for distributing unoriginal content (press releases, aggregate news sites, etc.).
- Credentialed media outlets should have an active website and at least two (2) consistently active social media channels, preferably bearing the name of the outlet (and not the individual).
- Media who exclusively use social media platforms (Instagram, Twitter/X, Facebook, YouTube, TikTok, etc.) and do not have a website will not be credentialed without a media purpose.
- Freelance writers and photographers should have a specific assignment from an affiliated, established, major news-gathering outlet and the editor or director must make their request from an official outlet email address.
- Photographer credentials with full access will be given to individuals associated with a legitimate wire service or accompanied by an approved writer from the same media outlet. Any photos taken should be used for editorial purposes only. Commercial use of photos should be sourced through Getty Images or MLB directly.
- Interns will be allowed for Daily Major Metropolitan Newspapers, Local Affiliates of National TV Networks, FM/AM Local Stations and Websites of National Outlets on a case-by-case basis.
- Student credential requests must be submitted by a faculty advisor of an accredited college program and the advisor must host the student for the assignment. Student access is limited to press box access with case-by-case consideration given for the interview room and/or clubhouse access. Requests from collegiate media outlets will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

- ◆ Due to limited space, TV cameras are not guaranteed locations on field level.
