1. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE

This Directive reissues reference (a) to implement reference (b) and update DoD policy and responsibilities governing the acceptance and retention of gifts and decorations from foreign governments.

2. APPLICABILITY

This Directive applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as "the DoD Components").

3. DEFINITIONS

Terms used in this Directive are defined in enclosure 2.

4. POLICY

4.1. No DoD employee may request, or otherwise encourage, the offer of a gift from a foreign government.

4.2. Table favors, mementos, remembrances, or other tokens bestowed at official functions, and other gifts of minimal value received as souvenirs or marks of courtesy from a foreign government (e.g., plaques or paper certificates) may be accepted and retained by the recipient.

4.3. Decorations from a foreign government awarded for outstanding or unusually meritorious performance may be accepted and retained by the recipient only when approved in advance by the Component Head, or, for members of the Armed Forces, when consistent with the provisions of DoD Instruction 1348.33 and DoD 1348.33-M (references (c) and (d)). Decorations accepted without meeting these conditions are deemed to have been accepted on behalf of the United States Government.

4.4. Whenever possible, foreign gifts of greater than minimal value, and foreign decorations not approved in advance by the recipients DoD Component, shall be refused. When a gift of more than minimal value, or a foreign decoration not approved in advance by the recipients DoD Component, is tendered, the donor shall be advised that statutory provisions and DoD policy prohibit employees from accepting such gifts or decorations, unless it appears that refusal of the gift or decoration may offend or embarrass the donor, or could affect adversely the foreign relations of the United States. Under such circumstances, the gift or decoration may be accepted on behalf of the United States. The gift or decoration then becomes the property of the United States and shall be deposited with the employing DoD Component, in accordance with 41 CFR Part 102-42 (reference (e)) and enclosure 3, within 60 days for return to the donor, for use within the Component, or for disposition by the General Services Administration (GSA).

4.5. The burden of proof is on the recipient to establish that the gift is of minimal value.

4.6. When more than one tangible gift is included in a single presentation from the same donor to an employee, or jointly to an employee and spouse, they shall be considered to be a single gift and the aggregate value shall be used to determine whether or not the gift exceeds minimal value.

4.7. Gifts or decorations from foreign governments shall be subject to adequate security measures to protect areas that need protection, as required by DoD Instruction 5240.5 (reference (f)).

4.8. DoD guidance pertaining to gifts received from other sources is provided in DoD 5500.7-R, "Joint Ethics Regulation" (reference (g)).

5. RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1. The Director of Administration and Management, Office of the Secretary of Defense shall develop overall policy and provide guidance to DoD employees regarding the acceptance and retention of gifts and decorations offered by foreign governments.

5.2. The Heads of the DoD Components shall designate an official who shall:

5.2.1. Ensure compliance with this Directive.

5.2.2. Establish procedures to ensure that employees are familiar with the requirements and restrictions of this Directive governing acceptance of gifts and decorations from foreign governments. Procedures for the receipt and disposition of gifts and decorations are provided in enclosure 3.

5.2.3. Report to the Attorney General, through the General Counsel of the Department of Defense, when it is determined administratively that an employee who is the recipient of a gift or decoration, or recipient of travel or travel expenses from a foreign government, has failed to comply with the procedures established by 5 U.S.C., 7342 (reference (b)) through actions or circumstances within the recipient's control.

5.2.4. Approve or disapprove employee acceptance of gifts that exceed minimal value or decorations from foreign governments. However, if the recipient of the decoration is in fact the Head of the DoD Component, the approval or disapproval determination shall be made by the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Force Management Policy) (ASD(FMP)).

5.3. The Director, Washington, Headquarters Services, shall carry out the responsibilities of paragraph 5.2. for the DoD Components serviced by Washington Headquarters Services (WHS).

6. INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS

The reporting requirement identified at subparagraph E3.1.1.1.3 of enclosure 3, has been cleared in accordance with FIRMR 201-9.202-2 (reference (h)), and assigned interagency report control number 0216-DOS-AN.

7. SUMMARY OF CHANGE 1. The changes to this issuance are administrative updates to Enclosures 2 and 3 for consistency with guidance from the Administrator of General Services.
